

K.J. Jacobs, AIA, LEED AP
Principal & Corporate Studio Director
McMillan Pazdan Smith Architecture

K.J. is a Principal at McMillan Pazdan Smith Architecture and is the Director of the firm's Corporate Studio. K.J.'s professional experience spans 20 years in a broad range of project types. He works closely with both public and private sector clients throughout South Carolina and North Carolina, with a primary emphasis on developer-led projects. K.J. has a distinctive collaborative style and has overseen some of the firm's most significant projects while managing all office, retail, restaurant, adaptive re-use, hospitality and industrial manufacturing design work. He also serves on the firm's Executive Committee and leads their internal leadership development program.

K.J. holds a Bachelor's of Science in Architecture from the University of Virginia and graduated summa cum laude from Clemson University with a Masters of Architecture. He is a graduate of both Leadership Spartanburg and Leadership Greenville, the ULI Sustainable Leadership program and is a member of Liberty Fellowship Class X.